

University of British Columbia, Vancouver

Located in the beautiful city of Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, UBC Vancouver has 30,000 students and a diverse array of majors including arts and humanities, sciences, engineering and business. UBC has a commitment to sustainable development that crosses academic disciplines. It is exemplified in the campus buildings as well as in related content in 300 courses. There has a co-op program option for several areas of study where students can get 3 semesters of work experience with top companies before graduation. UBC offers merit-based scholarships. First-year college students are prepared for success with a 2.5 week college readiness orientation program.